Q: What were the strengths of this course and/or this instructor?

- 1 Cristian is very kind and helpful to the students.
- 2 the topics of his course is quite helpful and usefull!!!
if u want to get a job, u need to take this course.
- 3 openness, clarity
- 4 Examples of implementation through code walks were very helpful. Instructor is super knowledgeable in Full-Stack Development.
- 5 It's not easy for students who has never studied web to learn these web knowledges. So I always have a lot of questions even though the class materials helped me a lot. Everytime I asked Cristian questions on teams, he always responds me warmly and helpfully. He is a good teacher.
- 6 It would be better if they can provide more materials for us to learn. They can be optional.

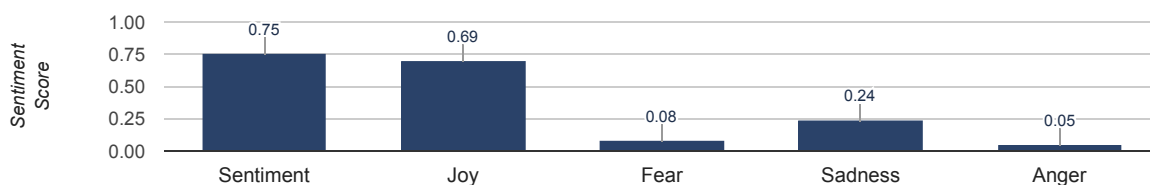

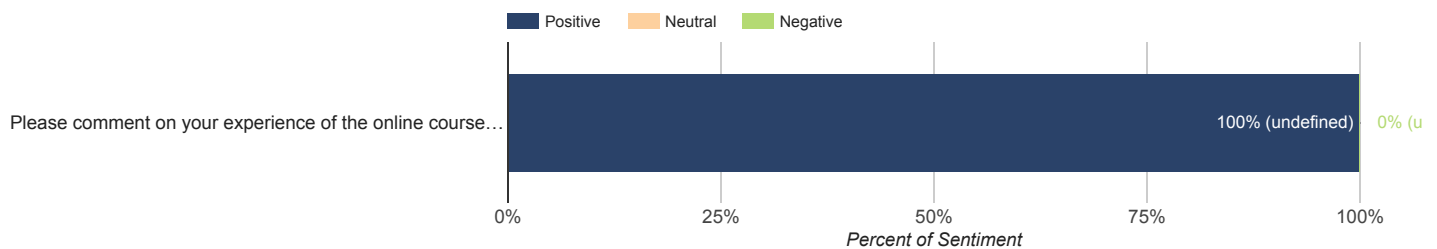

Q: What could the instructor do to make this course better?

- 1 nothing! he is perfect!
- 2 Expand the sections on deploying and explore those in a lot more depth, different options, their perks, deploying different scales of projects, deploying scalable things, etc... Deploying to droplets, aws, vps, etc...
- 3 Align learning with industry use cases and reduce pace early on to accommodate classroom based exercises.
- 4 At beginning or some point of the course, it would be nice if we can have an overview of web development nowadays. Sometimes I really want to know what are Next.js, Remix... Even though we don't have time to cover all of them in one semester, learning about what they are is helpful and can satisfy my curiosity.

Q: Please expand on the instructor's strengths and/or areas for improvement in facilitating inclusive learning.

- 1 he is very nice and kind, and he records every class so u can watch these records many times, until u fully understand.!!!
- 2 Classrooms in Northeastern University always moves at the rate of the perceived best student in class. For true inclusivity, room must be provided to allow new students to familiarize with these concepts so that learning truly takes place and not just mere rush to meet grade expectations.

Good course, a lot of overlap with 5500.

Feels like final 20-30% of the course could be stretched to be the latter 50% and first 70-80% condensed into the first 50%. ★★★★★

It was well structured and materials were useful and deep to cover basic requirements. I particularly appreciated how the instructor grouped what was urgent for immediate consumption and what was optional. Although as always, there's no enough time to really delve deep into the learning. ★★★★★
